JUNE'S THE TIME FOR ROSES

COME away, morning is breaking,
Come away June-time is here,
Birds are singing a merry song
In the woodlands near!
O'er the hills little clouds wander,
Beams of gold shine in the blue;
Come away, for the whole world is calling
Alone for you!

Come away, life that was weary
Wakes anew, happy and fair;
Flow'rs will greet you and deck your pathway
Just ev'rywhere!
Sing a song, let it be joyous,
Dream your dream, waiting is past;
June will crown you with glory and rapture
And love at last!

June's the time for roses,
June's the time for love!
June's the time for laughter,
When the sunshine gleams above!
Soon will come September, life will be so grey,
So live each golden moment,
Before it fades away,
For June's the time for wonderful roses,
The time for love.
