WALTZ BALLAD

Music by
ERNEST R. BALL

SOLO 30¢ Postpaid, OCTAVO, MALE, FEMALE and MIXED QUARTETS, 15¢ each Postpaid

Big city ways and its splendor
Somehow are starting to pall,
And I have a feeling
That often comes stealing,
To just get away from it all.

Let's ride away, let's hide away,
And leave the world behind us;
Let's find a vale 'way off the trail,
Where only God can find us.
Somewhere out there, where we can share
Our love 'neath skies of blue,
I'll build a shrine for me and mine,
Out there in the sunshine with you!

Out of the rush and the rabble,
Out when the day's work is done,
We'll both go a-finding
A pathway that's winding
Its way to a place in the sun.

FAR in the East there's a soft, crimson glow.
The new day blushes at its dawning;
Soft sing the birds in a ceaseless flow
Their welcome to the new-born morning.
Dull gray shadows, then a flaming sky,—
Such was the picture when we said good-bye!

Sunrise and you, and the soft morning dew,
Like the tears on your cheek when we parted;
My fond heart awakes
when the glorious day breaks,
For the sunrise reminds me of you!

Out from the depths of a starless night
Comes radiant morn, to find me longing;
Gone are the shadows, my heart is light,
And in my breast new hopes are thronging,
Cold gray dawn will soon have passed, and then
Skies will be smiling when we meet again!

Sunrise and you, and the soft morning dew,
Like the tears on your cheek when we parted;
My fond heart awakes
when the glorious day breaks,
For the sunrise reminds me of you!
